

Consent form for joint co-authorship of technical papers to be communicated to conferences

This set of regulations do not apply for papers into one student (scholar author & Guide) or sole author (with permission of Guide).

We shall, at all times:

- Inform Guide & take his permission for any communication in this regard
- Have signed this form and submitted to the Guide & kept a copy of this form before uploading for review.
- Decided the order of authorship (as per the order of signature below) & will never claim any changes even post-publication
- Guide should be kept in the loop for all correspondences from & to the portal for paper submission.
- Predecide & inform the Guide who will travel to the conference (bearing all costs) if at all the paper gets accepted (this is independent of whether the Guide travels or not).
- Also, predecide the main author for correspondence
- Will never have any claim for/against the paper, technically, officially, financially or anything else, during the process of paper submission and post-publication.
- Due acknowledgments are given to sponsor and/or any other collaborator/interns/staffs/students.
- Failure to comply with any of these or ethical standards may be report to DISCO or ethical committee of Dean-AR/ICSR.

I have understood and taken care of the above issues, and will follow them meticulously.
