

COURSE CONSENT FORM

Course No. : _____ Course Name : _____

Name : _____

Roll : _____

I, hereby, agree to the following terms and conditions, as a student enrolled in the above mentioned course:

- I will not use my mobile phone during the class hours / exams / tutorials / TPA and will make sure that it doesn't cause any sort of disturbance to the class.
- I am aware about the course webpage, and I am expected to regularly check for updates on the webpage and any instructions conveyed through email as well as informed in the class.
- I understand that self-study topics (listed on the course webpage) as prerequisites are part of the syllabus for the tutorials and exams, and no complaints on this will be entertained.
- Any non-technical (not related to course material covered in class) matters may be discussed only with the TAs. For issues regarding attendance shortage, letter from the Academic section should be provided. TAs will only provide any data required for this.
- I am fully aware that proxy attendance is unethical and if caught in such an activity, I will accept any penalty or disciplinary action as decided by the course instructor and / or the disciplinary committee of the department (class committee).
- I am aware that any feedback to the class committee will be given only by the class representative after discussing with all the fellow students. Individual feedbacks in this respect will may be avoided / ignored.
- I am fully aware that TA support for academic matters may not be available for the course.
